Ready-to-use language and links for sharing Avora Relay's free small-business tools

Avora Relay is an Ohio-based, woman-owned technology company creating practical online tools that make important business information easier to understand and use. Its free tools help small-business owners identify customer-facing website issues and turn business goals into clearer monthly revenue and customer targets.

TWO FREE TOOLS - NO SIGNUP OR EMAIL REQUIRED

01 WEBSITE INFOCHECK

Find customer-facing website issues

Reviews up to five public website pages using 100 checks for business information, customer paths, broken links, accessibility basics, mobile readiness, search setup, and other possible issues.
